Re: Campaign Finance Complaint Against Rep. Colin Larson, Colin for Colorado, Restore Colorado Leadership Fund (527), Restore Colorado Leadership Fund IEC, Frank McNulty, Square State Strategy Group, LLC, Daniel Cole, Cole Communications, and Victors Canvassing

Dear Secretary Griswold:

Pursuant to Colo. Const. Art. XXVIII, Sec. 9(2) & 10, C.R.S. Sec 1-45-111.7, and 8 CCR 1505-6 Rule 23 pertaining to violations, complaints and sanctions, and 8 CCR 1505-6 Rule 21 pertaining to the prohibition of improper coordination, Marcie Little ("Complainant") submits the following campaign finance complaint against Rep. Colin Larson, Colin for Colorado, Restore Colorado Leadership Fund (527), Restore Colorado Leadership Fund IEC, Frank McNulty, Square State Strategy Group, LLC, Daniel Cole, Cole Communications, and Victors Canvassing ("Respondents").

1. The late Rep. Hugh McKean was the elected representative for Colorado House District 51 during the 71st, 72nd, and 73rd General Assemblies and served as the Republican House Minority Leader during the 73rd General Assembly.
2. Rep. McKean created the Restore Colorado Leadership Fund as a 527 political organization ("Restore 527"). Exhibit 1.
3. Rep. McKean created the Restore Colorado Leadership Fund IEC as an Independent Expenditure Committee ("Restore IEC"). Exhibit 1.
4. Rep. McKean created the Restore Colorado Leadership Fund 501(c)(4) as a non-profit organization ("Restore 501(c)(4)"). Exhibit 1.
5. Rep. McKean created these organizations to work in concert with one another to fundraise money and spend in elections for the benefit of certain Colorado House Republican nominees in the 2022 election cycle. Exhibit 1.

6. Square State Strategy Group (“Square State”), is a “full service corporate and campaign firm,” managed by attorney and former Speaker of the Colorado House, Frank McNulty.
7. Cole Communications and Victor’s Canvassing are two political consulting and campaign companies owned and operated by Daniel Cole.
8. Rep. Colin Larson is currently the elected representative for Colorado House District 22 and controls at least Restore 527 & Restore IEC as indicated in paragraph 20.
9. Colin for Colorado is the official candidate committee for Rep. Colin Larson.
10. According to records submitted to the Colorado Secretary of State posted on the TRACER website, numerous 2022 House candidates and/or candidates committees have contracted with Square State for services, including: Colin Larson, Jaylen Mosqueira, Savannah Wolfson, Dave Woolever, and Dan Montoya. Exhibit 2.
11. According to records submitted to the Colorado Secretary of State posted on the TRACER website, Restore 527 contracted with Square State for services. Exhibit 2.
12. According to records submitted to the Colorado Secretary of State posted on the TRACER website, Restore 527 repeatedly transferred money to Restore IEC. Exhibit 3.
13. According to records submitted to the Secretary of State posted on the TRACER website, numerous 2022 House candidates and/or candidates committees who contracted with Square State for services, also benefited from Restore IEC electioneering spending. Those candidates include: Colin Larson, Jaylen Mosqueira, Savannah Wolfson, Dave Woolever, and Dan Montoya. Exhibit 4.
14. According to records submitted to the Colorado Secretary of State posted on the TRACER website, Restore 527 contracted with Daniel Cole, through Cole Communications, for services. Exhibit 5.
15. According to records submitted to the Colorado Secretary of State posted on the TRACER website, Daniel Cole, through Victor’s Canvassing, was contracted by a third party or parties to campaign in numerous legislative districts on behalf of various House & Senate candidates, including on behalf of all of the candidates in paragraph 13 above who benefited from the electioneering spending. See United for Colorado IEC contributions in Exhibit 6.

16. In an email from Rep. Larson on November 2, 2022, discussing permitted invitees to a zoom call, he explained “the zoom call that took place last night was with candidates who have been participating in the campaign program being run by Hugh McKean, former speaker McNulty and others...” Exhibit 7.
17. As confirmed by Rep. Larson, the zoom call on November 2, 2022, was a private meeting that included McNulty and the candidates referenced in paragraph 13 to discuss non-public information (information about how the “campaign program” coordination efforts would continue for those select candidates after the sudden passing of Rep. McKean). Rep. Larson also confirms that not every House GOP nominee was invited to participate. Exhibit 7.
18. Rep. Dave Williams is the current elected representative for House District 15.
19. On November 4, 2022, Rep. Williams posted an update to his constituents from the outcome of another meeting relating to the “fallout from the tragic and sudden death of Rep. Hugh McKean.” Exhibit 8.
20. In his update, Rep. Williams noted that Rep. Larson controls the “House GOP 527/IEC” and that “presumably the other consultants brought on to advise in implementing the McKean/Larson campaign plan. Larson will continue to oversee the strategy for the election.” Exhibit 8.
21. Axiom Strategies (“Axiom”), based in Kansas City, Missouri, is one of the largest Republican political strategy firms in the country. (See axiomstrategies.com.)
22. Ready Colorado Action Fund (“Ready Colorado”) is a Colorado based IEC formed to support “conservative candidates working to improve education in colorado.” See readycoloaction.org.
23. According to records submitted to the Colorado Secretary of State posted on the TRACER website, Ready Colorado reported two payments of $8,882.00 on 10/25/22 made to Axiom to support the defeat of Rep. Larson’s current Democratic challenger, Tammy Story.
24. According to records submitted to the Colorado Secretary of State posted on the TRACER website, Restore IEC (with funds controlled by Rep. Larson) reported two payments of the exact same amount to the same firm on 10/26/22 with the same stated purpose of defeating his opponent, Tammy Story.

25. According to records submitted to the Colorado Secretary of State posted on the TRACER website, Restore Colorado IEC then attempted to “amend” the TRACER record shortly thereafter to “delete” or “offset” the evidence of those two payments.
26. According to records submitted to the Colorado Secretary of State posted on the TRACER website, the $8,882.00 is a unique amount, not a standard charge, as evidenced by payments made at the same time by Restore IEC to the same firm to support the other candidates participating in the “campaign program.”
27. The implication, however, is clear. Rep. Larson knew of the two $8,882.00 payments that needed to be made to Axiom to support his campaign. He was supposed to let Ready Colorado (an IEC) pay for the effort (presumably to conceal his involvement), but he made a mistake, paying for it out of the IEC funds that he controls.
28. Rep. Larson, realizing his mistake, attempted to cover the evidence of his coordination by submitting equal deductions, identifying them as an offset intended to represent a “deletion”, but with TRACER, he was unable to delete the entries from the record entirely.
29. While two IEC committees can coordinate with each other, it’s not lawful for those IEC committees to do so with the candidate who is benefiting from their expenditures because it is impossible for a candidate to “firewall” non-public information about his own campaign from himself.
30. As demonstrated in paragraphs 21-28, it’s impossible for Rep. Larson, Restore IEC, or Ready Colorado to have a proper firewall in place as they coordinate together to electioneer on behalf of Rep. Larson’s own candidacy and against his own opponent.
31. These TRACER entries represent one example of the larger coordinated effort, involving non-public information across select campaigns as part of what Rep. Larson called a “campaign program.”
32. 8 CCR 1505-6 Rule 21 prohibits coordination by 527’s, IEC’s and 501(c)(4)’s with a candidate or a candidate's campaign.
33. While the use of common consultants is permissible in some circumstances, 8 CCR 1505-6 Rule 21.1.4 requires that any “common consultant” maintain “effective barriers to the transmission of non-public information” to ensure there is no prohibited coordination.

34. Per Rep. Larson’s email, Rep. McKean and Frank McNulty were all coordinating a “campaign program.” The Tracer records bear this out with funds transferred between the groups and from campaigns to common consultants, both Square State and Daniel Cole’s firms.
35. Rep. Larson admitted during the meeting with Rep. Williams and others that he controls the Restore 527/IEC funds, some of which include expenditures paid to McNulty’s Square State firm.
36. Rep. Larson is also currently a candidate for House District 25, and has separately benefited from Restore IEC spending, while also contracting with Square State (which itself is engaged by Restore 527) for his own campaign services.
37. Between Daniel Cole’s firms, Cole has been paid expenditures by Restore 527 while at the same time electioneering for some of the same candidates also contracting with Square State (which again is engaged by Restore 527).
38. Following from Rep. Larson’s email, Restore 527 pays Square State for a “campaign program.” Rep. Larson, managing those funds, is coordinating those efforts with McNulty.
39. Rep. Larson, through his campaign and Restore 527, McNulty through Square State and Cole through his firms are coordinating campaign efforts with campaigns listed in paragraph 13 and possibly others as a part of an overall “campaign program” in violation of campaign finance laws.
40. As interpreted on page 15 of the Secretary of States’ Campaign and Political Finance Manual, “Expenditures controlled by or coordinated with a candidate or a candidate’s agent represent both contributions by the person making the expenditure, and expenditures by the candidate committee.”
41. Consequently, the Respondents violated 8 CCR 1505-6 Rule 21 regarding campaign finance laws and regulations, and violating those provisions for coordination also invariably include violations of campaign contributions and filing requirements, which further propel the public mistrust of “Dark Money” unduly influencing the outcomes of fair elections.

42. In accordance with Colo. Const. Art. XXVIII, Sec. 10, C.R.S. 1-45-111.5(1.5), 8 CCR 1505-6 Rule 23.3.3 & 23.3.4, 23.3.5, the Complainant requests that the Secretary of State seek to have an administrative law judge order monetary fines, all necessary specific actions and consider all factors as appropriate to reach a just and equitable outcome, including fines for failure to file complete and accurate reports (for contributions and expenditures from improper coordinated campaign activities), acceptance and use of prohibited contributions, donations and expenditures, and other violations of campaign and political finance laws and regulations.

WHEREFORE, Complainant respectfully requests all remedies pursuant to Colorado law in keeping with the interests of justice, including appropriate penalties, disclosures and such additional relief as may be deemed appropriate.

Respectfully Submitted,

Marcie Little
Colorado Citizen & Voter

Hi Rep. Williams:

I hope you are well and your interim has gotten off to a good start.

I have received your request for a legal opinion concerning legislators' attempts to host a 527 caucus fund-raiser whether or not that complies with amendment 41.

The draft of the opinion, which will then be reviewed by the ethics team here at OLLS.

I don't know much about how these fund-raising events operate. Accordingly, I would understand these events a little better.

I would like to provide me some basic background on (assuming it is possible to generate to the 527 organization or other persons or entities?

McNulty (Square State) & Restore Colorado Leadership Connection: Hard & Soft Side

Tracer shows that GOP House candidates who have benefited from Restore Colorado Leadership are connected by Frank McNulty. Colorado law prohibits campaigns and third-party groups, like 527's or IECs, from coordinating together.

Rep. Larson Email Confirming Coordination

From: Colin Larson <colinforcolorado@gmail.com>

Subject: Re: Confused and Concerned

Hey Scott,

Thank you for reaching out with your email. First off I am sorry that this is the first time we have had a chance to talk and get introduced, the zoom call that took place last night was with candidates who have been participating in the campaign program being run by Hugh McKean, former speaker McNulty and others, it was not a caucus meeting or designed to be exclusionary in anyway merely to reassure people who had been working with Hugh since his passing was so suddenly.

I am so sorry that this is how we had to get introduced but I would love to hop on a call and talk and my apologies for the misunderstanding.

My cell number is [REDACTED]

Looking forward to to getting to know you and serving with you.

Colin Larson

Facebook Post Confirming that Rep. Larson Controls Restore Colorado Leadership

I've been receiving many questions about what's going on in the fallout from the tragic and sudden death of Rep. Hugh McKean.

Here's what we were told and what the plan is moving forward so that the House Republicans can finish out this election cycle.

The remaining leadership members will oversee staff and ensure there's a smooth transition to the new leadership team. They are Reps. Kim Ransom, Janice Rich, and Rod Pelton.

The House GOP 527/IEC is being controlled by Rep. Colin Larson, and presumably the other consultants brought on to advise in implementing the McKean/Larson campaign plan. Larson will continue to oversee the strategy for the election.

Finally, McKean's memorial service will be on Nov. 12th in Loveland, and a ceremony where he will "lie in state" will occur at the Capitol on Nov. 10th.

Hope this answers all the questions anyone has.
